The Primary School Certificate (PSC) has been administered annually since 2010 by the Ministry of Education, Directorate of Primary Education to grade 5 (ISCED 1) students in public and private schools.

The PSC is a low-stake examination that certifies completion of primary education.

The PSC is a written examination, administered face-to-face and delivered through paper-pencil tests. All test-takers are presented with the same cognitive booklets or tests, which are aligned with the national curriculum.

The PSC serves the following purposes:

- student certification for completion of primary education
- student selection to higher education programmes or admission into specific courses or tracks
- supporting teachers (training, relevant materials, etc.)
- school or educator accountability
- promoting competition among schools
- sub-national level monitoring of learning outcomes
- monitoring education quality levels
- planning education policy reforms
